

The Classic 10K holds Community Recognition Reception, donates $8,000 to community

MIDDLETOWN — In February, the Directors of The Classic 10K Road Race presented by Crystal Run Healthcare held a Community Recognition Reception to thank sponsors, volunteers and committee members and recognize community honorees. Now in its sixth year, The Community Recognition Reception serves as a platform to wrap-up the previous Classic year and kick-off the year ahead.

This year, The Classic honored several community organizations, once again donating a total of $8,000 to recipients including Orange Regional Medical Center Foundation, Mental Health Association of Orange County, the Warming Station run by the Greater Middletown Interfaith Council, Middletown Lion's Club 'No Child Hungry' program, Guild of St. Margaret's Soup Kitchen, Middletown Cross Country, Mayor's Youth Council, Middletown Fire Police, and RECAP, Inc. In addition, a donation was made to the

The 2017 Classic 10K Road

Race Weekend presented by Crystal Run Healthcare, will take place June 3 and June 4 at the Middletown High School Track - one of only fifteen tracks in all of North America that is IAAF certified. Additionally, 2017 marks the first year that The Classic 10K is recognized as a USATF New York 10K Championship. Olympic Marathon Gold and Silver Medal Winner, Frank Shorter, who once called Middletown home, originally inspired The Classic - which today attracts more than 1,200 elite and local runners alike.

The two-day Classic will feature kid's races for ages 12 and under from 9-11 a.m. on June 3., June 4 is "Classic Sunday" beginning at 7:30 a.m. with the world famous The Classic 10K (6.2 miles) followed by The Rowley 5K Run and Walk (3.1 miles). The Classic weekend is completed with a top notch Community Health Expo and Nick's Restaurant Breakfast. Many businesses, agencies and non-profits are represented at the Expo along with live music.
